The Queen Street Music Family

We have experienced so many of the benefits of music and are happy to share this you through music lessons and involvement in the community.

Piano, Ukulele, Guitar, Violin, Drums, Voice. Ask us about particular instrument groups and suitability.

Queen Street Music is a group of very talented instructors and amazing families with a strong sense of community involvement and outreach. Our students regularly perform at community events, recitals.

Queen Street Music is involved in community outreach providing instruction at Kinbridge, the YWCA, Race to Erase, and partner with Guitars for Kids (founded by Bob Egan, Blue Rodeo) and our Rock Out 'S'Cool, and Adult Guitar Programs with Ideas Unlimited.

No instrument? We have rentals if needed.

Find out why our families keep coming back!

There are a few options for private music lessons.

Lessons are 1/2 hour length and between Mon-Friday 3-9pm, Wednesdays 10-9pm

Fees are flat rate $95/month set up on recurring credit card payments. Our fees are based on 38 lessons between September and June though students can start anytime and this is not a contract. We would rather have a student take a break if timing isn't right and return in a year or two. We also teach through the summer months for students who are available. Fees are prorated when starting later in the year based on individual lesson fee $25.00/lesson.

We offer several curriculums including Royal Conservatory of Music, Suzuki, Hal Leonard, Mel Bay. Our philosophy is that children should first have fun and enjoy the instrument, becoming engaged in what they are learning to play. We emphasize performance, creativity, and community.

In my life, I have made many great friends through music and sports involvement!

The next step is to first think about your availability and contact me to discuss available instructors. We start booking for fall in the month of April. Students may enroll year round depending on availability.

Missed Private Lesson Policy

Queen Street Music School retains both excellent families and instructors. We operate as a school with policies that benefit both our families and our instructors. Due to full schedules of both your family and instructor, it is challenging to reschedule lessons. As you have reserved your time slot, the instructor is here available to teach and is compensated for that time. Our policy is to allow (1) makeup/reschedule lesson per term for missed lessons. 24 hours notice must be given to qualify. Queen Street Music provides a scheduled makeup week for missed lessons (sickness, vacation, reschedule)

Missed Group Lesson Policy:

Rescheduling individual lessons for missed group classes is not possible. Your instructor will provide homework to assist with learning missed material.

Missed lessons due to instructor absence will be provided by instructor or a substitute teacher will be provided. Queen Street Music School closes when Waterloo Region school board closes due to inclement weather and these lessons will be made up by the instructor.

Regular practice habits are essential for musical development and success. Student agrees to practice minimum of 4 times per week at least 20 minutes each
